

Have you a Story or a Poem?

Forces Literary Organisation Worldwide (for ALL) is a place where you can come and read stories and poems sent in from people who are just like you. We publish your Stories and Poems on our websites with your name, or if you prefer, a cover name so you can remain anonymous. WW2 Forces Sweetheart Dame Vera Lynn is our Patron.

We offer a place where “anyone” can express their deepest emotions and read the stories and poems of people who have experienced similar things to you. Our forum lets you chat freely about these things with friends who will listen and understand.

To find us just search for FLOW for ALL or go to the web-site www.FLOWforALL.org

Every year people vote for a selection of our Stories and Poems to be published in our books to commemorate Remembrance Day.

Forces/ex forces/families/friends,
EVERYONE is welcome
