~ FLOW for ALL - Our New Books and Competition Winners 2009 ~

The pictures on the right show our two new books of stories and poems. To view a list of the winning poems and stories, please click on the relevant book cover to the right. Congratulations to all who submitted their work for the books.

This year things change slightly as the book titles are "Stories of the Poppies" & "Poems of the Poppies". Our books will be known as the "Voices of the Poppies collection" with this years books being vol 1 of stories and vol 1 of poems which makes things easier.

Our only regret is that we could not fit any more of the superb poems and stories into our books this year as there were so many wonderful entries.

The voting for our next two books is expected to begin in January 2010. Next year submissions for the story and poem competitions will have a minimal entry fee to cover our publishing costs with further details to follow.

Any poem or story can be entered even if it has been submitted previously. The only stories or poems that can't be put forward are those which have already been published in our previous books.

Thank you to Rui our technical genius and to Helen our publisher who worked hard to get the books to press.

Thank you to our wonderful volunteer (and unpaid) moderators especially Tom, Paula and Peter without whom none of this would be possible.

Thanks to you all for supporting, donating, sending in your work, fundraising events and chats in the forum to help the troops and their families affected by war.
